A citizen of the republic, Incidentally a member of Congress, on hearing the late date of official operations by New York real Republicans, promptly pulled from his pocket the Woods-Eversman political calendar recontly issued from Riggs Building headquarters. White the document is a bit bulky the esteemed statesman had held it within easy reach since leaving Washington, and it came in handy as the talk turned to what was impending prior to the late gathering of the faithful in New York.

cidental investigations in behalf of the Republican party throughout several Jersey Congressional districts, have been noted by The Washington Herald correspondent, took a turn at New York politics Saturday and Sunday by way of diversion. He joined the Waldorf roof-garden coterie of wise men from many States tonight and was hardly ready to report on the New York City districts without further investigation. He was eloquent enough in supplementing his first statements about the distress impending for several Democrats now representing the compact aggregation of districts in Jersey less than fifty miles from dear old Broadway.

After a formal report is made to Republican managers in Washington possibly over the heads of Jersey local lenders of the G. O. P., there will be increased apprehension among the Democrats from the State who came to Congress with the general Republican break-up of 1802 and 1812. The chief thought just now of this political philanthropist is not so much to distress the souls of the Democratic incumbents as to make sure that strong Republican nominations are made in every Jersey district where there is hope of election. From now on conferences will be held both at Washington and in New York, as well as in Jersey to carefully consider and ultimately designate the strongest Republicans for nominations.

Some Ontside Inducements.

The most important primary expres-sion to precede the New York event will be in Ohio on August II and it will give more attention both in Washington and New York than any other State of the sixteen yet to speak. There are personal features of it that attract attention, and estucially the dashing methods of For-Possibly some of the local leaders may resent the efforts of outside Republican wise men, but once the intimation is given that nomination approved by finanial New York and political Washington will be aided greatly with kopecks, elo-quence, and velvet-heeled endeavor even from Wall Street, there will be quick subfrom Wall Street, there will be quick sub-sidence of resentment and care taken to mitted. sidence of resentment and care taken to ask where the shekel supply stations can be found once there is need of real "business" methods in the righteous work of insuring a majority of Republicans in the next delegation.

But the Jersey situation was passed over in the eagerness of the philanthropist and his compatriots from many States to get a line on New York and the
